AVON TYRRELL ACCOMMODATION PRICE LIST 2011

SPECIAL OFFER
All our residential guests will receive a 10% discount on our activity prices for 2011.

Why Choose Avon Tyrrell

In its stunning New Forest surroundings, Avon Tyrrell Outdoor Activity Centre is an ideal venue for groups of all ages.

With 65 acres of private grounds, a huge range of adventurous and environmental activities are available no matter what your experience of the outdoors we can provide a stimulating learning experience, or just somewhere to get away from it all.

Our flexible programmes and disabled access meet the needs of any age or ability and our staff are trained in working with you to promote innovative and exciting learning opportunities, helping our guests to develop their full potential.

Shop & Cafe

From 2011 our shop will now be found in the main reception and will sell a selection of souvenirs and basic supplies.

We will also be offering a winter take away menu and summer cafe to self catering and day visit guests.

For more information about the shop, or to download a basic supplies order form please visit our website www.avontyrrell.org.uk or contact us.

Hire a Chef

Do you like the flexibility of staying in our lodges, but struggle to fit in time to organise the catering? It is now possible for your group to hire their very own chef for your stay, or why not pre book your evening meal which can be eaten either in your lodge or in the main house dining room.

For more information, please contact our bookings team who will be delighted to put together a package designed to suit your specific requirements.

Our Advisory Service

To ensure every guest gets as much as they can from their visit, we have launched an advisory service. Aimed at group leaders the service aims to enhance understanding of what outdoor learning can offer them and to advise on the skills they need, and information to plan an effective outdoor learning programme for residential visits. To make use of this service please email your questions to avontyrrell@ukyouth.org where they will be directed to the most appropriate person.
