UK Youth Safeguarding policy and procedure for - Child Protection & the protection of adults at risk

1 Introduction

EVERYONE has a Safeguarding responsibility: The purpose of this document is to specify UK Youth's Safeguarding policy and procedures for the protection of children, young people and adults at risk. A child is defined as up to the age of 18. The document applies to all UK Youth staff, including apprentices, trustees, volunteers, freelancers and consultants and the policy and procedures applies to all UK Youth activities.

All adults who come into contact with children and young people in their work have a duty of care to safeguard and promote their welfare. Child protection refers to the activity that is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering, or are likely to suffer, significant harm.

The Children Act 2004 places a duty on organisations to safeguard and promote the well-being of children and young people. This includes the need to ensure that all adults who work with or on behalf of children and young people in organisations are competent, confident and safe to do so. (Guidance for Working together to safeguard children July 2018)

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined for the purposes of this policy as:

- Protecting children from maltreatment
- Preventing impairment of children's health or development
- Ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- Taking action to enable all children to have the best life chances.

2 Policy

UK Youth seeks to provide an environment where everyone can work safely, and children, young people and adults at risk can engage with the charities activities and enjoy programmes provided through the work of the Charity or in partnership with other agencies and/or community voluntary sector organisations.

It is the policy of UK Youth to safeguard the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk involved in the work we do by protecting them from neglect, physical, sexual or emotional abuse. It is also UK Youth's policy to provide those working for or with the charity with a framework to operate within to keep everyone who is engaged in the Charity's activities safe. It is therefore UK Youth's policy to:

- ensure that all staff, apprentices, trustees, consultants and volunteers (legally responsible adults) working with children, young people or adults at risk: are carefully selected, are checked by the Disclosure and Barring Service ("DBS" - see 4.1 below) have two appropriate references and understand and accept their responsibility for the safety of children, young people and adults at risk in their care.

- raise awareness of child protection issues amongst community voluntary groups, clubs and organisations within our network and encourage them all to work towards achieving the UK Youth Safe Spaces Mark.
- ensure that the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk is of paramount importance, regardless of age, gender, ability or race, when planning, organising, advising on and delivering programmes.
- respond swiftly and appropriately to all suspicions or allegations of abuse, and to ensure confidential information is restricted to the appropriate external agencies.
- raise the awareness of relevant staff, partner organisations and volunteers of child protection issues through the provision of training and regular updates to risk assessments and changes in client groups.
- monitor and review the effectiveness of this policy on a regular basis.
- ensure that the principles of this policy are adopted by all organisations or individuals with whom UK Youth works and by members of the UK Youth Movement Network, through the adoption of a policy, which meets the same level of determination with regard to children, young people and adults at risk safety.

The Child protection and the protection of adults at risk policy and procedure, also seeks to manage effectively the risks associated with activities and events involving children, young people and adults at risk through departments by:

- Completing a risk assessment process which involves identifying risks and means of reducing or eliminating these;
- Implementing the required actions identified by the risk assessment process and reviewing the effectiveness of these on a regular basis;
- Ensuring that the appropriate DBS or basic disclosure checks are conducted, depending on eligibility, for any individuals starting or moving into work which involves working with children or vulnerable adults;
- Requiring new employees and individuals involved in working with children, young people and adults at risk to familiarise themselves with the content of this policy, the associated code of behaviour, any associated policies or risk assessments and that they receive appropriate training.

3 Responsibilities

The implementation of this policy is mandatory across all areas of the Charity. Specific responsibilities are outlined below:

3.1 Chief Executive and Leadership Team

The Chief Executive is ultimately responsible for the implementation of the Charity's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

The Leadership Team will ensure the policy and its accompanying procedures and practice guidelines are implemented across their geographical and functional areas of responsibility.

3.2 Safeguarding Officer

Champion for Safeguarding - (Director of Operations & Avon Tyrrell - and - dw@ukyouth.org - Mobile 07738 588140). They will report to the Trustee organisational development committee (ODC) on any safeguarding and/or child protection issues, which arise.

Responsible for ensuring:

- the resource available to support staff on safeguarding/child protection issues is maintained.
- that safeguarding implications are constantly reviewed across the scope of the work the Charity delivers to young people and are fully considered in the development of all new pieces of work.
- the continued development of Charity's approach to Safeguarding, considering and authorising any immediate changes in operational policy required due to a safeguarding incident or near miss
- safeguarding is considered in all appointments of staff (to include trustees, volunteers, freelance staff etc).
- Training of staff is delivered as regularly as is necessary for department needs.

3.3 Line Managers

Responsible for:

- ensuring that staff, trustees and volunteers are able to discuss safeguarding, child protection and abuse issues confidentially and receive guidance and support on action if situations arise;
- ensuring the Safeguarding policy is fully implemented locally and that procedures to support the policy are set up as outlined, complied with and communicated;
- ensuring the referral of all safeguarding, child protection issues to the Safeguarding Officer. (This may be as simple as discussing a hypothetical issue to protect identities);
- ensuring all reporting staff are aware of their roles and responsibilities under this policy. This must form part of their induction;
- ensuring staff and volunteers undertake appropriate and required induction and training in safeguarding/child protection, at the required level relevant to their role;
- ensuring all new staff members and volunteers have the required disclosure certificate in place if engaging in regulated activity with young people and that they cooperate with the internal DBS procedure to include checking ID and provision of signed copies of documents with application forms to HR.

3.4 All Trustees, staff, apprentices, volunteers, freelancers and consultants

All Trustees, staff (including apprentices), volunteers, freelancers and consultants are expected to adhere to the requirements of this policy and procedures and operate within codes of conduct outlined within the various policies that support the work of the Charity.

Any behaviour by a Trustee, member of staff, apprentices, volunteer, freelancer or consultant that contravenes the terms of this policy and procedure may be considered for disciplinary action, which in turn may lead to dismissal for staff and ending of contracts for apprentices, volunteers, freelancers and consultants and for Trustees being removed from the Trustee Board.

4 Procedure

4.1 Recruitment of Employees, Volunteers, Trustees and Consultants

The aim of the recruitment and selection processes for employees, volunteers, Trustees, freelancers and consultants is to ensure that the best person for a particular role is appointed. However, UK Youth needs to balance the need to protect the interests of young people with its desire not to discriminate unfairly against ex-offenders. For this reason, the Charity has a detailed policy and procedure that details the recruitment of ex-offenders, and all staff, trustees and regular volunteers are required to have two appropriate references, attend specific training and hold a valid enhanced DBS certificate.

4.2 Work with Children and Young People

UK Youth requires ALL those working directly with children, young people and adults at risk on behalf of the charity in ANY situation to follow the procedures below, in order to create a safe environment in which to work with them.

4.2.1 Guidance for safer working practice

The word “session” is used below to cover all delivery of our work and “staff” includes apprentices, Trustees, staff, volunteers, freelancers and consultants:

- Staff must give due regard to issues of safety at all times. This includes carrying out appropriate risk assessments before all sessions. (See UK YOUTH Health and Safety.doc). Due regard should be given to the potential influences and associated risks that different groups will have on each other.
- Staff working with children, young people and adults at risk should:
  - be appropriately trained and qualified to ensure the safe provision of services, coaching and use of equipment.
  - should carefully plan sessions with the care and safety as their primary concern including the use of appropriate activities that are testing and stretching yet not unnecessarily rough or overly demanding.
- Staffing ratio guidelines must be followed. In practice the ratio of responsible adults to children tends to be 1:8 regardless of age, other guidance suggests 1:10 for older children. It is recommended that, even if the ratio only requires one adult, there is a minimum of two staff with legal responsibility present at all times for children under eight years old. At Avon Tyrrell, ratios are managed to each instructed activity session, and a group leader/teacher must also be present.

- Wherever possible, staff should avoid being alone with children, young people and adult at risk, and staff should never take them into their own home (including staff accommodation at Avon Tyrrell). Staff should not offer a lift to a child, young person or adult at risk unless they have written parental consent or a second adult (preferably a group leader) is present.
  - Staff should only train children, young people and adults at risk in a non-intrusive manner and should encourage them to be responsible for getting themselves ready, such as getting themselves changed before and after activities.
  - When entering guest rooms/accommodation, staff and volunteers should make sure there is another adult present where practical.
  - Staff planning sessions should comply with the standards set by their appropriate professional body, e.g. Sport National Governing Body, National Arts Council.
  - Staff planning sessions at third party premises must ensure that they have a 24hour emergency contact system in place for the event for appropriate staff and services.
  - Staff will be expected to keep an attendance register for all organised sessions.
  - Parental consent and medical information about the child, young person and/or adult at risk must be obtained in advance when UK Youth is working directly with, and has responsibility for, them (forms in Appendix 1). Youth Leaders who are accompanying the children, young people and adults at risk should have obtained appropriate parental consent and medical information about them prior to the UK Youth event. Staff (Inc. group leaders / teachers), should have access to Information and Parental Consent Forms for all children taking part in sessions and this information should be treated as confidential and is governed by the provisions of Data Protection regulations.
  - Children, young people and adults at risk and their parents should be given a 'named appointment' to whom they may report any worries or concerns. The contact names and telephone numbers should be visibly displayed at events. At Avon Tyrrell, this can be the group leader/teacher; details are kept at Reception/on Cinolla.
  - Staff should ensure that programmes follow agreed timings and locations
  - Staff are expected to promote, demonstrate and incorporate the values of fairness, trust and ethical practice – Staff must respect all individuals whatever their age, development stage, ability, sex, sexual orientation or ethnicity 'throughout the session.
  - Staff should behave and dress in a manner that promotes recognised good practice in relation to safeguarding.
  - Residentials and Events for Young People should be alcohol free, unless there is an agreement by a senior member of staff that alcohol can be consumed and that a risk assessment supporting the residential or event has mitigated any risks.
  - All accidents/incidents involving staff or participants should be recorded using the Charity's accident forms immediately or as soon as practicably possible.
- Staff and volunteers are responsible for familiarising themselves with building/facility safety issues, such as, fire procedures, location of emergency exits, location of emergency telephones and first aid equipment.

- Staff are responsible for reporting suspected cases of child abuse to the appropriate people (see 4.2.6 below).

4.2.2 Good Practice to protect against allegations of abuse

You shouldn't:

- Spend excessive amounts of time alone with children, young people and adults at risk away from others;
- Take children, young people and adults at risk to your own home (including staff accommodation at Avon Tyrrell);
- Offer a lift to a child, young person or adult at risk unless they have written parental consent or a second adult (preferably group leader) is present.

Where occasions arise where it is unavoidable that these things do happen, they should be done with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge of the organisation and/or the children's, young person's or adult at risk's parents/guardians.

Never:

- Engage in rough physical activities including horseplay.
- Engage in sexually provocative activities.
- Allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any form. (Note: where contact is essential for H&S requirements, i.e. an outdoor instructor kitting up activity participant, this is done through clear communication, with participant consent and follows training guidelines.)
- Allow children, young people or adults at risk to use inappropriate language unchallenged.
- Make sexually suggestive comments about or to a child, young person or adult at risk even in fun.
- Let an allegation a child, young person and/or adult at risk makes during a group session go unchallenged or unrecorded.
- Do things of a personal nature for children, young people and/or adult at risk that they can do themselves.
- Place yourself in a situation where you will be left alone with a child, young person and/or adult at risk. Always seek help from another worker
- If you do have to do things of a personal nature for children, young people and/or adult at risk (support, give lifts) particularly if they are very young or disabled, then you should obtain the full consent of their parents and ensure a second adult is present

In an emergency situation, which requires this type of help, parents should be fully informed as soon as is practicable.

4.2.3 Photography and Interviews

Appropriate rules need to be set in line with the service being provided, for example there is no photography allowed at swimming pools.

The NSPCC recommends using models or illustrations to promote an organisation's work and advises that names should never be matched to photographs. The Football Association advises that photographs should focus on the activity and not on a specific young person.

Formal permission should be obtained for the use of any images or quotes, whether of a child, young person or adult at risk; apart from child protection issues, photographs, and quotes/interviews that identify the person, are classed as personal information and, as such, are governed by Data Protection laws (see UK Youth's Data Protection policy and procedures)

4.2.4 Off-site and Residential Events

UK Youth is not responsible for a child, young person or adult at risk while they are travelling to and from UK Youth's event unless agreed with UK Youth beforehand. It is the responsibility of the parent/guardian or school/local authority to make appropriate travel arrangements for them.

UK Youth requires leaders organising residential events for children, young people and adults at risk to make appropriate sleeping arrangements to ensure the safeguarding of individuals and minimise risk.

All offsite and residential events must be managed in accordance with departmental operating procedures and relevant UK Youth policies.

4.2.5 Signs and Types of Abuse

Signs of Child Abuse:

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting, by those known to them or, more rarely, by a stranger. They may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.

Some signs that could alert staff and volunteers to the fact that a child, young person or adult at risk might be being abused include: -

- Unexplained bruising and injuries
- Sexually explicit language and actions
- Sudden changes in behaviour
- Something a child has said
- A change observed over a long period of time e.g. losing weight or being increasingly dirty or unkempt.

If a child, young person or adult at risk displays these signs it does not necessarily mean that they are being abused. Similarly, there may not be any signs; you may just feel something is wrong. If you are worried, it is not your responsibility to decide if it is abuse but it is your responsibility to act on your concerns and do something about it by reporting it appropriately. See Appendix 2 for Types of Abuse

4.2.6 Suspicions/Reports of Abuse

It is not the responsibility of staff or volunteers to deal with suspected abuse, but it is their responsibility to report concerns in line with guidance on reporting child abuse. You may find that these suspicions back up other recorded incidents. Remember, do not investigate – do report.

The following information covers different safeguarding scenarios – follow the one that is appropriate in the situation.

1. If a child, young person or adult at risks' behaviour/appearance gives reason for concern or they have an unusual physical injury or they confide about abuse, the procedure below MUST be followed:
  - a. immediately inform your line Manager or Director or UK Youth Safeguarding Officer;
  - b. use the Incident Record Form at Appendix 3 to make a record of your actions, include anything the child, young person or adult at risk said, anything you asked the child, and your observations. This may be used as evidence later. Record only the facts as you know them;
  - c. ensure the child has access to an independent adult (e.g. teacher/group leader/youth worker);
  - d. if abuse is suspected, you or the Manager or Director should report concerns directly to the UK Youth Safeguarding Officer immediately or in their absence the Head of Operations and Avon Tyrrell. It is the responsibility of the safeguarding officer to inform the appropriate authorities.

The following are some key Do's and Don'ts if a child, young person or adult at risk reports abuse:

Always:

- Stay calm – ensure the child, young person or adult at risk is safe and feels safe.
- Make notes, and as soon as possible after the event write up a detailed account of what you and the child, young person or adult at risk discussed.
- Allow the child, young person or adult at risk to speak without interruption, accepting what you have been told. (This should not be seen as believing or disbelieving what you have been told)
- Reassure the child, young person or adult at risk and stress that they are not to blame, tell them that they are right to tell you and that you will try to offer support – but do not promise to keep it a secret and tell the child it is your responsibility to inform others.
- Tell the child, young person or adult at risk that you will try to offer support, but you will have to pass the information on.
- Alleviate feelings of guilt and isolation, without passing any judgement.

Never:

- Rush into details that may be inappropriate.
- Make promises you cannot keep.
- Take sole responsibility – consult someone else so that you can protect the child, young person or adult at risk and gain support for yourself.

2. If you receive an allegation from an adult about another adult or yourself the procedure that MUST be followed is:
  - a. immediately inform your line Manager, Director or the UK Youth Safeguarding Officer;
  - b. record the facts as you know them and give a copy of the record to your line Manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer;
  - c. if an allegation is suspected, concerns should be reported directly to the UK Youth Safeguarding Officer or in their absence the Head of Operations and Avon Tyrrell. It is the responsibility of the safeguarding officer to inform the appropriate authorities;
3. If you receive a request for advice from anyone external of the Charity about suspected/reported abuse of a child, young person or adult at risk the procedure that MUST be followed is:
  - a. advise them to make a note as soon as possible detailing the facts as known and, if they spoke with the child, young person or adult at risk, what was discussed;
  - b. advise them to contact the nearest Children's Social Care with details of the concerns/report, including a copy of the written notes;
  - c. don't give them a copy of UK Youth's procedure, but you may give details of the organisations/publications detailed within it;
  - d. immediately inform your line Manager or Director or Safeguarding Officer;
  - e. record the facts as you know them and give a copy of the record to the line Manager or Director;
  - f. if abuse is suspected you or the line Manager or Director should report concerns directly to the UK Youth Safeguarding Officer or in their absence the Head of Operations and Avon Tyrrell. It is the responsibility of the safeguarding officer to inform the appropriate authorities.
4. If you are concerned that a child, young person or adult at risk is or may be subject to abuse or harm:
  - a. Make a written, dated note of observations;
  - b. immediately inform your line Manager or Director or UK Youth Safeguarding Officer or in their absence the Head of Operations and Avon Tyrrell as soon as possible, who will, within the appropriate timeframe, either make enquiries without raising the question of abuse and evaluate the matter and/or make a referral to the appropriate external authority. See below for referral procedure.
5. The following outlines the steps you should take if you are concerned that the behaviour of a member of staff or other person is threatening, or potentially threatening, the well-being of a child, young person or adult at risk.

- a. If you are concerned that a member of staff is harming or abusing a child, young person or adult at risk, you must report your concerns immediately to your line manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer. Where it is appropriate to do so, relevant HR procedures may be initiated, and/or a referral made to an external agency.
- b. If you suspect any other person is harming or abusing a child, young person or adult at risk, you should contact your line manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer. However, you can contact Children's Services, Adult Services or the Police.

If you have urgent concerns about the safety of a child, young person or adult at risk and are unable to contact your line manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer, or in their absence the Head of Operations and Avon Tyrrell, do not hesitate to contact Children's service, adult services or the police. These external agencies will be in a position to determine an appropriate course of action.

Making a Referral

If you are concerned that a child, young person or adult at risk, may be at risk or has disclosed that they are being harmed, you should contact your line Manager, Director or the Safeguarding Officer. Your line manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer will assess the concerns to determine whether to refer to an external agency needs to happen or can be addressed via the Charity's internal procedures.

Where a referral is to be made externally, the safeguarding officer will report the matter to the authorities. The external agency will conduct their own investigation. Anonymity may not be maintained on reporting.

4.2.7 Radicalisation & Extremism

The threat from terrorism and extremism in the UK is real and severe and can involve the exploitation of vulnerable children, young people and adults at risk. This can include involving them in extremist activity in the UK or abroad putting them in extreme danger. Children and young people are being targeted by adults who hold extreme views that advocate violence. There has also been an increase in far-right extremism, which can also draw them into violence. UK Youth staff, including apprentices, trustees, volunteers, freelancers and consultants working directly with children, young people and adults at risk must be aware of radicalisation and extremism and report any suspicions of radicalisation and extremism immediately to your line Manager, Director or Safeguarding Officer.

Radicalisation and extremism can put a child or young person at risk of being drawn into violence and criminal activity and has the potential to cause significant harm. Radicalisation is a process by which an individual, or group comes to adopt increasingly extreme political, social, or religious ideals and aspirations that reject or undermine the status quo or undermine contemporary ideas and expressions of a nation. Children and young people may become radicalised if they feel:

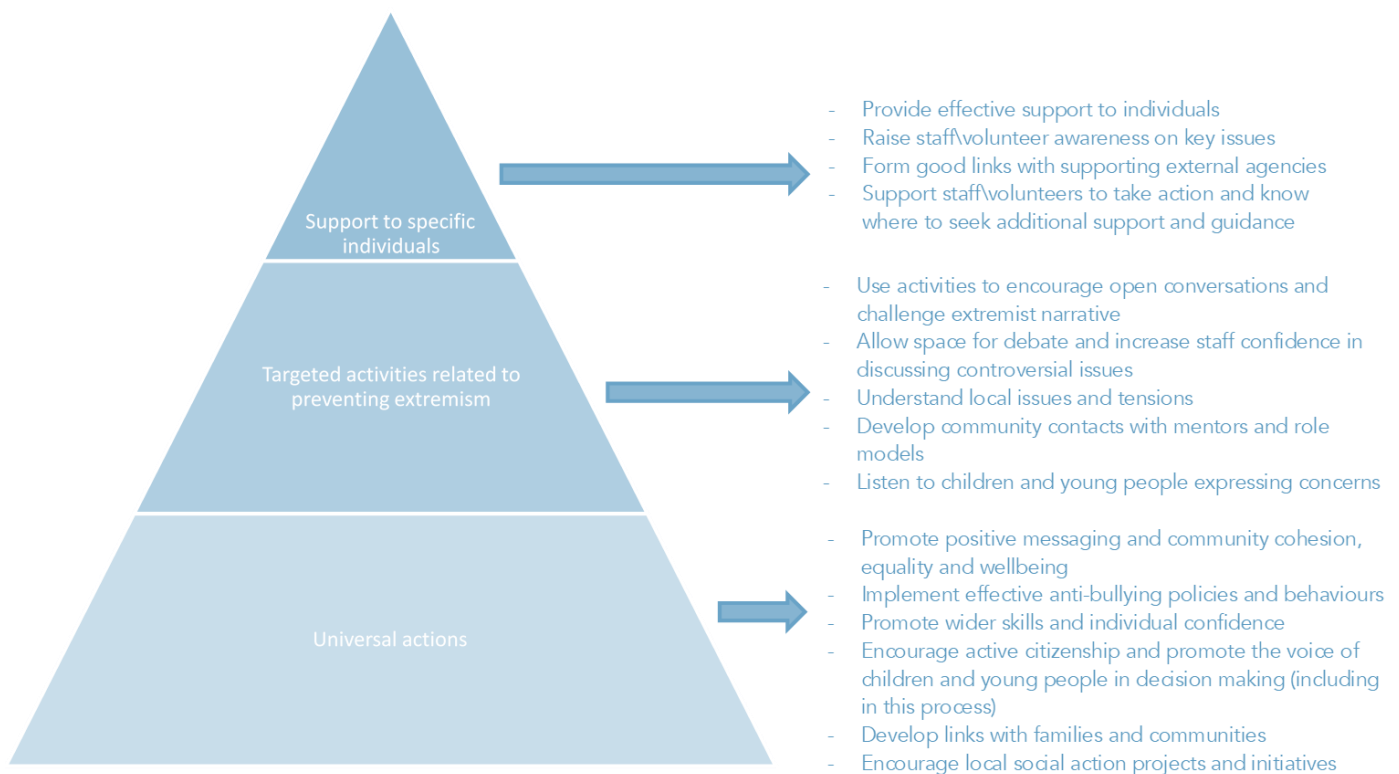

- Isolated and lonely or wanting to belong;
- Unhappy about themselves and what others might think of them;

- Embarrassed or judged about their culture, gender, religion or race;
- Stressed or depressed;
- Fed up of being bullied or treated badly by other people or by society;
- Angry at other people or the government;
- Confused about what they are doing;
- Pressured to stand up for other people who are being oppressed.
- The desire to be valued and respected
- There are few other options open to them
- No one is listening to them/have no voice

Extremism is when people have very strong opinions, and these could become extreme. People who have certain beliefs about politics or religions which are hateful, dangerous or against the law are often known as extremists. This harmful behaviour is called extremism.

Extremists might use violence and damage to express their views. And extremist racial or religious groups might use, religion, hate, fear or violence to control and influence people. There are many groups and individuals who hold extremist views both within the UK and internationally, some are more dangerous than others and UK Youth staff need to be aware of how they can affect young people in a negative way and what you should do to support children and young people or adults at risk who are in danger of being radicalised.

A tiered approach to supporting children and young people:

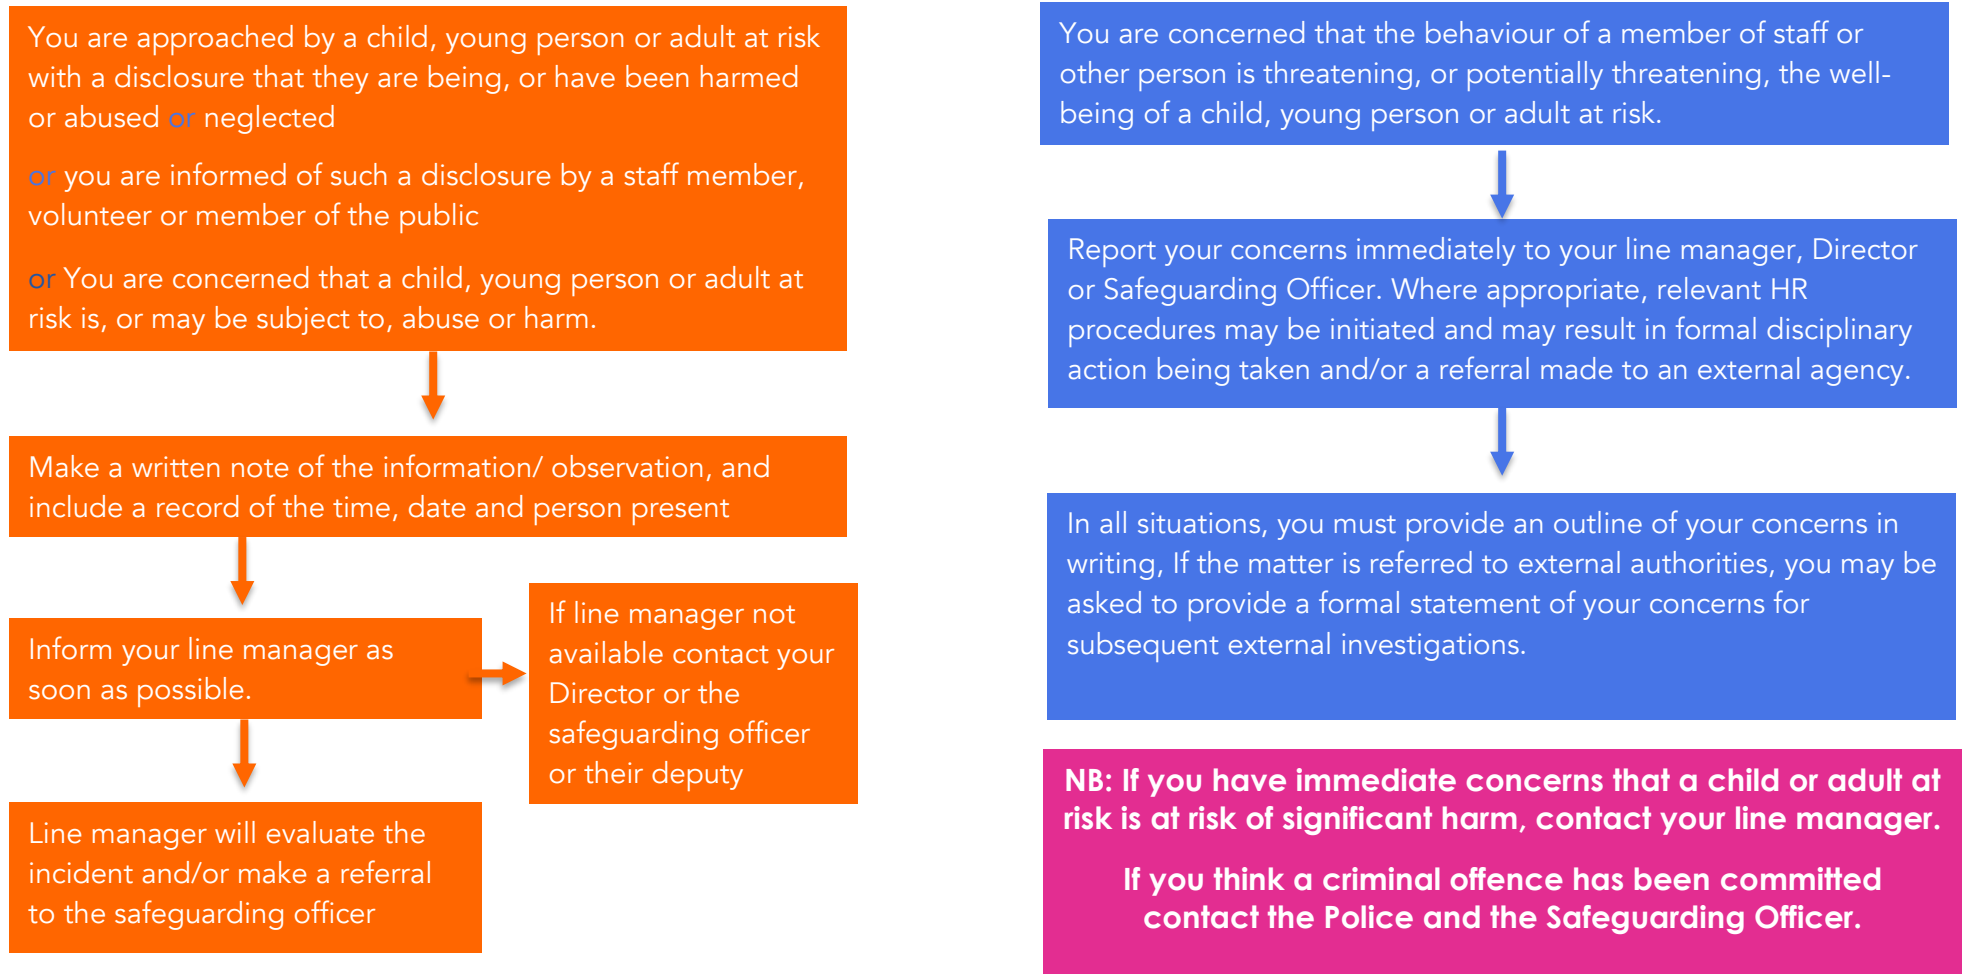

UK Youth staff, including apprentices will be expected to have completed PREVENT awareness training at a minimum biannually to equip staff to identify children at risk of being drawn into terrorism and to challenge extremist ideas.

Trustees, volunteers, freelancers and consultants ideally will have completed the PREVENT awareness training if direct delivering UK Youth services to children and young people, however it is recognised this is not always practical and therefore a minimum requirement is that they have read this document and have acknowledged reading it.

Further information can be sought from the UK Youth Safeguarding Officer at safeguarding@ukyouth.org.

4.2.8 Staff Guidance Flow Diagram

What to do if you have concerns for the safety of a child, young person or adult at risk or in the case of allegations about a member of staff.

4.3 Safeguarding Officer - reporting procedure for concerns

1. Behaviour of a staff member, Trustee, volunteer, freelancer or consultant (e.g. allegation about behaviour towards a child, young person or adult at risk)

2. Behaviour of another organisation's staff member, Trustee, freelancer, volunteer or consultant

(e.g. allegation about behaviour towards a child, young person or adult at risk)

5 Working in Scotland

UK Youth acknowledges Scotland's safeguarding and Child Protection laws are different to those of England & Wales and will abide by these when it is appropriate to do so.

Types of Abuse:

Abuse: A form of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may cause abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others (e.g. via the internet). They may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.

Physical abuse: Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating, or otherwise causing physical harm to a child, young person or adult at risk. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child, young person or adult at risk.

Emotional abuse: Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child, young person or adult at risk such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on their emotional development. It may involve conveying to them that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only in so far as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children, young people or adult at risk. These may include interactions that are beyond their developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing them participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying, causing children, young people or adult at risk frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of them. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, young person or adult at risk, though it may occur alone.

Sexual Abuse & Sexual Exploitation: Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child, young person or adult at risk to take part in sexual activities, including sexual exploitation, whether or not they are aware of what is happening, and whether it is for money or reward or not. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative contact (e.g. rape and buggery) or non-penetrative acts. They may include non-contact activities, such as involving children, young people or adults at risk in seeing or receiving or sending sexually suggestive emails or text-messages, or inappropriate behaviour on the Internet, involving them looking at, or in the production of, pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or encouraging them to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Neglect: Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child, young person or adult at risks' basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of their health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy because of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:

- Provide adequate food, clothing and shelter, (including exclusion from home or abandonment)
- Protect a child, young person or adult at risk from physical and emotional harm or danger
- Ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate caregivers)
- Ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment

It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child, young person or adult at risk's basic emotional needs.

Discriminatory Abuse: Including racial or sexual harassment and abusive treatment based on a child, young person or adult at risk's disability.

Abuse of Disabled Children: Disabled children are at increased risk of abuse and those with multiple disabilities are at even more significant risk both of abuse and neglect. Parents of disabled children may experience multiple stresses. This group of children may be particularly vulnerable to abuse for a number of reasons including:

- Having fewer social contacts than other children, young people or adult at risk;
- Receiving intimate personal care from a larger number of carers;
- Having an impaired capacity to understand what they are experiencing is abuse or to challenge the abuser;
- Having communication difficulties resulting in difficulties in telling people what is happening;
- Being reluctant to complain for fear of losing services;
- Being particularly vulnerable to bullying or intimidation;
- Being more vulnerable to abuse by peers than other children, young people or adults at risk.

Disability is defined as: A major physical impairment, severe illness and/or a moderate to severe learning difficulty; an ongoing high level of dependency on others for personal care and the meeting of other basic needs.

Bullying: Bullying may be defined as deliberately hurtful behaviour, usually repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those bullied to defend themselves. It can take many forms, but the three main types are physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, theft), verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, threats, name calling) and emotional (e.g. isolating an individual from the activities and social acceptance of their peer group). There is increasing use of new technologies as a tool for bullying and such incidents should be taken seriously.

Self-Harming Behaviour: Children, young people and adults at risk who harm or attempt to harm themselves should be taken seriously. The self-harming behaviour in itself may cause impairment of their health or development and in some circumstances present significant harm or the risk of significant harm. Self-harming behaviour may also arise alongside eating disorders and/or drug misuse.

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM): Female genital mutilation is a collective term for procedures that include the removal of part or all of the external female genitalia for cultural or other non-therapeutic reasons. The practice is medically unnecessary, extremely painful and has serious physical and mental health consequences both at the time and in later life. The procedure is typically performed on girls of 4 -13 years but may be performed on newborn babies or on young women. FGM can result in death.

FGM is a criminal offence (Prohibition of Female Circumcision Act 2003 and subsequent amendments by the Serious Crime Act 2015). Under the act it is an offence to arrange, procure, aid or abet female genital mutilation. Parents/carers may be liable under this act. It is also an offence to allow the procedure to be undertaken in another country. Where agencies become aware that a girl is at risk of FGM a referral should be made to Children's Social Care.

Forced Marriage: A forced marriage is one that is conducted without the full consent of both parties and where duress is a factor. Forced marriage can amount to sexual and emotional abuse and put children, young people or adults at risk, susceptible to physical abuse. In circumstances where there are concerns that someone is at imminent risk of a forced marriage urgent referrals should be made to Children's Adults' Social Care.

In the case of a child, young person or adult at risk, in danger of forced marriage it is likely that an initial discussion with the parent, carer or other community member may significantly increase the level of risk to the person.

Online abuse: Online abuse is any type of abuse that happens on the web, whether through social networks, playing online games or using mobile phones. Children and young people may experience cyberbullying, grooming, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation or emotional abuse. It can take place anywhere and anytime.

Online child sexual abuse: When sexual exploitation happens online, young people may be persuaded, or forced, to:

- send or post sexually explicit images of themselves
- take part in sexual activities via a webcam or smartphone
- have sexual conversations by text or online.

Abusers may threaten to send images, video or copies of conversations to the young person's friends and family unless they take part in other sexual activity. Images or videos may continue to be shared long after the sexual abuse has stopped.

Online bullying or cyberbullying: Cyberbullying is an increasingly common form of bullying behaviour which happens on social networks, games, and mobile phones. Cyberbullying can include spreading rumours about someone, or posting nasty or embarrassing messages, images, or videos.

Cyberbullying includes:

- sending threatening or abusive text messages
- creating and sharing embarrassing images or videos
- 'trolling' – sending menacing or upsetting messages on social networks, chat rooms or online games
- excluding children from online games, activities or friendship groups
- setting up hate sites or groups about a particular child
- encouraging young people to self-harm
- voting for or against someone in an abusive poll

- creating fake accounts, hijacking or stealing online identities to embarrass a young person or cause trouble using their name
- sending explicit messages, also known as sexting
- pressuring children into sending sexual images or engaging in sexual conversations.

Online grooming : Grooming is when someone builds an emotional connection with a child to gain their trust for the purposes of sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, or trafficking.

Groomers can use social media sites, instant messaging apps including teen dating apps, or online gaming platforms to connect with a young person or child.

They can spend time learning about a young person's interests from their online profiles and then use this knowledge to help them build up a relationship.

It's easy for groomers to hide their identity online – they may pretend to be a child and then chat and become 'friends' with children they are targeting.

Groomers no longer need to meet children in real life to abuse them. Increasingly, groomers are sexually exploiting their victims by persuading them to take part in online sexual activity.

Sexting; Sexting is when someone shares sexual, naked or semi-naked images or videos of themselves or others or sends sexually explicit messages. They can be sent using mobiles, tablets, smartphones, laptops etc – any device that allows you to share media and messages.

Sexting may also be called 'trading nudes', 'dirties' or 'pic for pic'. The creating or sharing of explicit images of a child is illegal, even if the person doing it is a child.

Cuckooing; Cuckooing is the process whereby criminal gangs target the homes of vulnerable people in order to use their premises for criminal activity. Many of the victims are particularly vulnerable and criminal gangs may use threats and intimidation to gain access to the property to engage in criminal activity such as drug dealing, sexual exploitation etc.

Criminal exploitation: county lines; Criminal exploitation of children or vulnerable adults is a geographically widespread form of harm that is a typical feature of county lines criminal activity: drug networks or gangs groom and exploit people to carry drugs and money from urban areas to suburban and rural areas, market and seaside towns.

Peer on peer abuse; Children can abuse other children. It can take many forms including: bullying; sexual violence and sexual harassment; physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling or otherwise causing physical harm; sexting and initiating/hazing type violence and rituals.

Sexual violence and sexual harassment can occur online and offline. Evidence shows that girls, children with special education and needs disabilities (SEND) and lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) children are at greater risk. Peer on peer abuse tends to be experienced by children aged 10 and upwards, with those abusing them being slightly older. Signs of possible peer on peer abuse include but are not limited to:

physical injuries - drug and alcohol abuse - going missing - committing criminal offences - disengagement from school - poor mental health - sexual health concerns.

Trafficking: Children, young people and adults at risk can be trafficked into, within and out of the UK for many reasons and all different types of exploitation. Trafficking is a form of child abuse and needs an appropriate safeguarding response. Any child, young person or adult at risk who is recruited, transported, transferred, harboured or received for exploitative reasons is considered to be a victim of trafficking, whether or not they have been forced or deceived. This is because it is not considered possible for children, young people or adults at risk in this situation to give informed consent. Even when they understand what has happened, they may still appear to submit willingly to what they believe to be the will of their parents or accompanying adult. It is important these children, young people and adults at risk are protected too.

Children, young people and adults at risk are trafficked for many reasons, including sexual exploitation, domestic servitude, labour, benefit fraud, forced marriage, begging and involvement in criminal activity such as pick pocketing, theft and working on cannabis farms. They are likely to be subjected to other forms of abuse, as a means of coercing and controlling them.

Trafficking is carried out by individual adults and organised crime groups.

Consensual sexual activity involving a young person under 18 years is not abusive, but it may be, and a child or young person's ability to consent can be impaired due to lack of freedom, capacity or choice; for example because of an age/power imbalance; because it is leading into sexual exploitation; because one person is in a position of trust with the other (e.g. a teacher); where one person is vulnerable because of disability or capacity; where the child/young person is in the care of another away from home. No child under the age of 13 or under is able to consent to any sexual activity according to the Sexual Offences Act (2003).
